Bourbon Fiscal Court Meeting.

The Bourbon Fiscal Court was in session yesterday with Judge Denis Dundon presiding. Farmers for the loss of sheep were allowed $156.50 which amount was certified to the Auditor of Public Accounts.

The report of the road supervisor was read and approved. Charles Winley for turnpike work was allowed $61.50 and S. W. Berry $194.80. Accounts against the county to the amount of $808.29 were approved and ordered paid.

It being the day set apart by law to elect a county treasurer and treasurer of the Garth Fund, Sitas E. Bedford was placed in nomination and elected unanimously. An appropriation of $774.42 was allowed for salaries to pauper physicians.

The court passed an order levying an ad valorem tax on all property in the county assessed for State purposes as follows: To pay court house bonds and interest, 9 cents on each $100 worth of property so assessed; turnpikes and bridges, 17 cents; general purposes 24 cents, and 5 cents on all property outside the city limits of Paris for public school purposes.

Report of committees auditing accounts of Sheriff E. P. Clarke and Road Supervisor C. F. Redmon were read and approved. Dr. French Knox was elected pauper physician for Rudolph Mills precinct.

The court opened bids for the working and repair of all turnpikes in Bourbon which went over as unfinished business and court adjourned till tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

RELIGIOUS.

—The Young Men's Club of the Christian church will be addressed this evening by Elder Lloyd Darsie, former pastor of the church. A full attendance of the members of the club are requested.

—Elder Lloyd Darsie will occupy the pulpit at the Christian church Sunday morning. In the evening Elder Carey E. Morgan will fill the pulpit at the usual hour. At both the morning and evening services, Prof. A. H. Morhead, the musical director, will render the beautiful tenor solo, entitled, "Palms."

—There will be communion services at the Presbyterian church on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and preparatory services on Saturday at 10:30 a. m. On Sunday night at 7:30 there will be regular services. The Ebenezer Presbyterian meets in the church on Tuesday evening at 7:30 when Rev. Gilbert Glass, of Covington, will address the meeting.

Property Withdrawn.

The two pieces of property of Fred Garrison, one on Lileston Avenue and the other in Henry Addition, and the property of L. Grinnan on Henderson street were put up at public auction yesterday afternoon, but were withdrawn because of the scarcity of bids. The Grinnan property was bid to $2,150.

Hill Top Gun Club Shoot.

The annual live bird shoot of the Hill Top Gun Club, under the management of Messrs. Thomas H. Clay, Jr., Geo. W. Clay and Alfred Clay, was held Tuesday and Wednesday at the home of Mr. Alfred Clay, at Austerlitz, this county, and was well attended by sportsmen from all parts of the country. The event known as the Hill Top Live Bird Tournament, a contest at from 26 to 34 yards rise with an entrance fee of $20 and extra for birds, was the feature of Tuesday's shooting and as the day drew to a close showed the honor equally divided between J. D. Gay, of Pine Grove, Ky., a member of the Fayette Gun Club and C. O. LeCompte, of Eminence, each having to their credit 47 birds and the purse of $350. Messrs. Gay and LeCompte divided first and second honors, third money went to Fred Gilbert, Spirit Lake, Ia., who had 46 birds to his credit, while fourth and last money, $50, was apportioned by three men, C. A. Phellis, Huntington, W. Va., Alfred and Thomas H. Clay, Jr., Austerlitz, Ky., each of whom bagged 44 birds.

Messrs. Gay and LeCompte, winners of the shoot, being tied for first honors, decided the ownership of the trophy, a handsome ten-piece traveling set, in seal case, in a shoot of ten live birds, the former killing eight and the latter ten.

Wednesday's contests were close and exciting and some splendid records were made. The three trophies offered to the high marksmen were awarded only after the hottest of races and the winners were all deserving of the prizes they won. Mr. T. H. Clay Jr., made the highest amateur average, scoring a total of 175 points on the two days shoot. The results of Wednesday's races were as follows:

First contest: 50 targets; R. O. Heikes, first 50 targets; Fred Gilbert second, 46 targets; T. H. Clay, Jr., third, 46 targets

Second contest: 100 targets; W. H. Herr, first 92 targets; William Crosby second, 91 targets; F. Gilbert third, 90 targets; T. H. Clay, Jr., Woolfolk Henderson tie for fourth, 89 targets; J. Q. Ward

Third contest: 50 targets; M. A. McRea first, 48 targets; C. A. Young second, 47 targets; Ben D. Goff, Guy Deering tie for third, 45 targets; Alfred Clay.

Professional high average: Fred Gilbert, Spirit Lake, Iowa, first 181; William Crosby, Ofallon, Ill., second 177; R. O. Heikes, Dayton, Ohio, third, 174.

Amateur high average: T. H. Clay, Jr., of Bourbon, first, 175; Woolfolk Henderson and Guy Deering second, 173; W. R. Chamberlin third, 171.

These averages are for both days of the shoot. The sportsmen from various parts of the country who were in attendance at the meeting speak in glowing terms of the genuine hospitality shown them, and appreciated the numerous courtesies extended them during their visit to this city and county.

At the shoot yesterday of the Fayette Gun Club a squad of 15 shot at 150 birds and dropped 3. W. R. Crosby shot at 150 and dropped 1. LeCompte and Gilbert dropped 2 each out of 150. Woolfolk Henderson dropped 15 out of 150, winning the high amateur.
